PRESS RELEASE

Amanat engages with high profile investors at the Dubai Financial Market (DFM) International Investor Roadshow

Dubai, UAE, May 13, 2018: Amanat Holdings PJSC ("Amanat"), the GCC's largest healthcare and education investment company, today announced that it has recently participated in the Dubai Financial Market (DFM) International Investor Roadshow to enhance its visibility in key international markets. Now in its sixth year, the roadshow took place in New York, and was held in collaboration with Bank of America Merrill Lynch.

DFM's International Investor Roadshow enhanced Amanat's visibility among the international investment community, providing a platform for the management to share the Company's strategy, success story and most recent business developments. The opportunity to connect, and interact with high profile investors who are greatly attracted to the lucrative investment opportunities available on Dubai capital markets will potentially help the Company increase its trading volume.

Commenting on the roadshow, Dr. Shamsheer Vayalil, Vice Chairman and Managing Director of Amanat, said: "DFM's International Roadshow is a unique opportunity to connect with international investors. As the GCC's only publicly-listed investment company focused on the healthcare and education sectors, we are pleased that we had the opportunity to share Amanat's differentiated and attractive business model. We believe that Amanat is well positioned to deliver sustainable, long-term value for our shareholders."

Building on the firm's strength, Amanat is focused on investment opportunities in the healthcare and education sectors in the GCC and beyond. Amanat's strategy is to play an active role through acquiring significant minority or majority stakes in market leaders in an aim to deliver greater value for its shareholders and portfolio companies alike.
