Drake & Scull International clarifies the news circulating in the Jordanian newspapers regarding the issuance of judicial rulings acquitting businessman Khaldoun Al Tabari and his daughter

Dubai, UAE, 9 December 2021: With reference to the news circulated in the Jordanian newspapers on Wednesday, December 8, 2021, it was reported that the Jordanian Courts had acquitted the businessman Khaldoun Al Tabari and his daughter Zina from all the cases brought against them by the public prosecutor.

DSI confirms that there are several civil cases still pending before the Dubai courts, in addition to 15 criminal cases that remain before the Federal Public Prosecutor in the UAE against Khaldoun Al Tabari, his daughter Zina and others. In Jordan, the Company made no attempt to seize Al Tabari's assets, however, in the UAE the situation is different and the Courts have frozen his assets under the instructions of the Federal Public Prosecutor.
