Notification from Aramex PJSC

Further to the disclosure made by Aramex PJSC ("the Company") on Thursday, 7th of January 2021 regarding the lawsuit filed by one of the Company's customers in Morocco claiming a compensation for the loss of goods and moral damages in relation to the fire incident that occurred late September 2020 at the warehouse facility of the Company's subsidiary in Casablanca, Morocco, Aramex would like to inform the market that it had received a judgment from the court of first instance in Morocco, ruling in favor of the customer and against Aramex. The said judgment can be appealed.

Aramex intends to appeal this ruling before the competent court, and also reserves the right to explore and evaluate all available legitimate options to deal with all developments related to this lawsuit.

Aramex will keep disclosing all relevant updates as they become available.
