

BHM Capital Acquires a New SCA License in Fund Administration

Dubai, September 21, 2022 - BHM Capital Financial Services, a regional leader in financial markets, has strengthened its market position by acquiring the Fund Administration License from the UAE Securities and Commodities Authority (SCA). The license allows the company to provide administration services to investment funds. The development is aligned with the company's strategy after it has obtained Fund Management license back in June 2022.

Abdel Hadi Al Sa'di, Chief Executive Officer, BHM Capital, said "We are pleased to have obtained the Fund Administration license. This is a solid reflection of the company's vision and position as a leading provider of financial services in the region. Our goal is to be a "One-Stop-Shop" that offers top-quality and fully integrated financial services in the region. We handle the entire process of putting together a client's investment portfolio and provide access to new investment opportunities"

Al Sa'di adds, "BHM Capital will continue to develop its capabilities to always provide fundamental advantages to its clients. Over the years, our clients have put huge trust in BHM's abilities to play a significant role in their successful investment strategies, and having this license will complete the service integration by ensuring proper investment funds' accounting, administration, and financial performance reporting."

End.
