Al Salam Bank Celebrates Bahraini Women's Day with a Distinguished Workshop

Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain – 22 December 2024: On the occasion of Bahraini Women's Day, Al Salam Bank recently organized a workshop at its headquarters under the theme "Partners in Progress." The event brought together prominent female leaders, entrepreneurs, and professionals from various sectors, highlighting the significant contributions of women in advancing Bahrain's development. The workshop forms part of a series of activities organized by the Bank in celebration of Bahraini Women's Day.

The workshop featured a range of activities, including inspirational speeches delivered by notable speakers from the "Qaedat" program, focusing on the importance of leadership, innovation, and gender diversity in driving progress. Additionally, panel discussions explored strategies for empowering women in the workplace, while interactive sessions were designed to enhance participants' skills and build their confidence. Attendees also had the opportunity to network and exchange experiences, fostering a collaborative and supportive professional environment.

Commenting on the occasion, Mrs. Muna Al Balooshi, Head of Human Resources and Administration at Al Salam Bank, said: "At Al Salam Bank, we are proud to launch initiatives that highlight the vital role of women in shaping the future of the Kingdom of Bahrain. This event reflects our ongoing commitment to supporting and developing female talent and creating a work environment that enables women to achieve their professional and personal aspirations. We firmly believe that empowering women is not merely an institutional goal but a cornerstone for achieving sustainable development and enhancing national competitiveness. Through this workshop and similar initiatives, we aim to provide women with the necessary support to develop their skills and continue making impactful contributions across various fields. We are dedicated to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment that helps them succeed and excel."

The workshop concluded with participants pledging to continue supporting initiatives aimed at promoting gender equality and empowering women across all sectors. Al Salam Bank reaffirmed its commitment to cultivating an inclusive workplace that empowers women and contributes to the Kingdom's vision for a more inclusive and prosperous future.
