- Delivery Hero SE, has entered into an agreement with Uber regarding a voluntary public takeover offer for all outstanding Delivery Hero shares listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange
- Talabat being a listed separately on the DFM confirms no change to its strategy, operations, leadership, or commitments to shareholders

Dubai, UAE, 16 July 2026 - Talabat Holding plc ("talabat" or the "Company"), the leading Everyday app in the Middle East and North Africa, today confirmed that Delivery Hero SE ("Delivery Hero") listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, has entered into an agreement with Uber Technologies, Inc. ("Uber") under which Uber intends to launch a voluntary public takeover offer for all outstanding shares of Delivery Hero listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Should the takeover offer be successfully completed and receive all required regulatory approvals, which is expected in the second half of 2027, Uber will become the direct owner of Delivery Hero SE, listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. Delivery Hero SE wholly owns Delivery Hero MENA Holding GmbH, where the latter holds an 80% majority stake in talabat, unchanged.

As a Dubai Financial Market (DFM) listed company, talabat remains governed by its own Board of Directors and subject to the applicable regulations in the country. The Company's listing, operations, strategy, and leadership are unchanged. Any corporate actions to talabat will follow its corporate governance and regulatory processes applicable to the Company and its shareholders in the country.
