ALEC Holdings Maintains Employee Safety and
Client Interests as Top Priorities

Dubai, United Arab Emirates – 4 March 2026 – In light of the ongoing events, ALEC Holdings (“ALEC” or “The Company”) has reaffirmed its unwavering commitment to safeguarding its workforce and delivering on the best interests of its clients. Towards this end, the company implemented a temporary work-from-home policy across its operations in the UAE. Operations in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia have remained fully operational during this period.

The Company has resumed on-site and in-office operations across its UAE projects from Wednesday, 4th March in close coordination with clients to ensure a prompt and safe return to full-scale activity. Furthermore, the company remains committed to holding its first Annual General Assembly Meeting post listing as intended on Tuesday March 24th, 2026, in line with regulatory guidelines.

Barry Lewis,
Chief Executive Officer of
ALEC Holdings, said:

“Our priority is, and always will be, the safety and security of our workforce. We are immensely grateful to our clients for their steadfast support during this period. That trust has been built over decades of delivering on our promises, and it is something we value deeply. We remain focused on transparency and close collaboration, working hand in hand with our clients and partners to safeguard everyone’s best interests and ensure safety across all our sites and offices.”

“Our significant investments in digital collaboration platforms, workforce management systems and enhanced security protocols have been tried and tested across our operations. These capabilities continue to play a pivotal role in keeping our projects on track while protecting our people. We remain confident in the resilience of our operations and in our ability to adapt responsibly to changing circumstances,” Lewis concluded.
