Al Salam Bank Receives J.P. Morgan 2025 U.S. Dollar Clearing Recognition Award

Manama, Bahrain – 9 November 2026: Al Salam Bank has received the 2025 U.S. Dollar Clearing Recognition Award from J.P. Morgan in recognition of its operational excellence and performance in processing international fund transfers. The award recognizes the Bank's achievement of high straight-through processing (STP) rates during 2025, reflecting its commitment to operational efficiency and accuracy across its payment operations.

Established in 1997, J.P. Morgan's U.S. Dollar Clearing Recognition Awards recognize financial institutions that demonstrate strong operational performance in funds transfer operations. The awards are based on straight-through processing performance measured against J.P. Morgan's internal operational data. This recognition highlights Al Salam Bank's ability to process international payments efficiently while minimizing manual intervention, supporting efficient execution and greater operational reliability.

Commenting on the achievement, the COO of Al Salam Bank Mr. Mazar Jalal said: "We are pleased to receive this recognition from J.P. Morgan, which reflects our ongoing commitment to strengthening operational efficiency and maintaining high standards across our banking services. This achievement is a testament to the dedication of our teams and our continued efforts to enhance operational systems and processes to ensure accuracy and reliability in executing financial transactions. It also underscores the importance of our relationships with leading international financial institutions in supporting our ability to deliver efficient and reliable payment services that meet the evolving needs of our individual and corporate clients."

The recognition further reflects Al Salam Bank's commitment to continuously enhancing its operational infrastructure and strengthening the efficiency of its treasury and international payment services. The Bank remains focused on developing its capabilities and maintaining strong relationships with global financial institutions to deliver reliable and advanced banking solutions to its clients.
