Update on Agility's legal case with the US Government

As scheduled, Agility (PWC) and its wholly owned subsidiary Agility DGS Logistics KSCc filed several initial motions on Tuesday with the U.S. District Court in Atlanta in the case involving the Prime Vendor food-supply contracts. The motions included requests for dismissal of the case on the grounds that the Justice Department has failed to identify any fraudulent act by the two companies and on the grounds that the Justice Department has engaged in misconduct.

The court has set a March 12 status hearing in the case.
